Whilst more detail of the programme will follow early next year, you can look forward to:

- Thriving across the generations: an interactive session facilitated by CLLS Training Committee co-vice chairs, Charlotte Wanendeya (Head of Law BPP) and Colin Shaw (Head of Learning and Development, Norton Rose Fulbright). This will be an opportunity to explore key research and theory on the generations, and for you to share your experiences of working together across the generations.
- A panel of experts: facilitated by CLLS Committee member, Charlie Moore (Senior Paralegal, Kingsley Napley LLP), a knowledgeable group of people spanning the generational spectrum, will share their thoughts and top tips on this fascinating topic.
- An expert's opinion: Shannett Thompson (Partner, Kingsley Napley LLP) will share her thoughts and experiences across the generations.
