

Tax Law Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (“CLLS”) Tax Law Committee has vacancies to fill arising from a its current workload. The Committee would therefore welcome applications from prospective new members.

Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm. Applicants should be senior and experienced practitioners in the field of tax law, be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including in-person meetings in the City of London.

To apply, please contact the Committee Chair, Philip Harle, of Hogan Lovells LLP, by e-mail at philip.harle@hoganlovells.com. Please put “City of London Law Society Tax Law Committee” in the subject-line. The deadline for applications is close of business on Friday 24th April 2026.

When applying, please send a short CV/bio and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee and what you would expect to contribute to the Committee. If you have any queries, please contact either Philip, or Kevin Hart at kevin.hart@clls.org.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
