

Professional Rules and Regulations Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (“CLLS”) Professional Rules and Regulations Committee is made up of senior solicitors whose work comprises all elements of law and practice governing the solicitors’ profession, including working on matters arising from the Law Society, LSB, and the SRA, and the wider legal professional bodies, as well as the government, and judicial organisations. The Committee wishes to recruit new members in response to its current workload and activities.

Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm. Applicants should be partners or equivalent and experienced in professional rules and regulation of the solicitors’ profession: they should be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee and of the wider CLLS; and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including regular in-person meetings in the City of London.

To apply, please contact the Committee Chair, Iain Miller, of Kingsley Napley LLP, by e-mail at imiller@kingsleynapley.co.uk. The deadline for applications is close of business on Friday 25th April 2025.

When applying, please send a short CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee and what you would expect to contribute to the Committee. If you have any queries, please contact either Iain, or Kevin Hart at kevin.hart@clls.org.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
