

Meeting of the City of London Law Society Competition Law Committee held at 2:00pm on 16 March 2023 in person and via videoconference

Minutes

Committee members were joined by three guest speakers from the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA): (i) Marcus Bokkerink (CMA Chair); (ii) Sarah Cardell (CMA Chief Executive); and (iii) John McInnes (CMA Senior Legal Director for Policy and International). The meeting included discussion about:

- The CMA's strategic priorities and new thematic and outcomes-based approach (as reflected in its new annual plan), and related move away from a formalistic tools-based approach.
- The CMA's increased digital and consumer focused work and the imminent Digital Markets, Competition and Consumer Bill, including likely timing for the Bill and how the CMA is preparing for the proposed new digital regulatory regime and competition and consumer reforms.
- The draft sustainability guidance that the CMA recently published for consultation, including the global thought-leadership role the CMA has developed regarding the approach to sustainability issues under competition law, and the CMA's more general evolving approach to engaging with stakeholders on key issues (e.g. greater use of workshops).
- The CMA's international role in the post-Brexit environment, including how the CMA is engaging with authorities in other jurisdictions and differences in this regard between antitrust and merger control work.
- The UK merger control regime and how this is working in practice, including areas where the regime is thought to be working well and aspects of the regime that Committee members consider could be improved.
- The CMA's market studies and market investigations work, including recent examples and benefits of such work.
