

Company Law Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (“CLLS”) Company Law Committee has a vacancy to fill arising from a combination of retirements and its current workload. The Committee would therefore welcome applications from prospective new members.

Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm. Applicants should be senior and experienced practitioners in the field of company law, be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including in-person meetings in the City of London. Areas of focus for the Committee in the short to medium term include liaising with the government, regulators and other working groups in relation to the embedding of the recent changes to the listing and prospectus rules; dematerialisation of shares; changes to corporate reporting and disclosures; and the company law reform agenda.

To apply, please contact the Committee Chair, David Pudge, of Clifford Chance LLP, by e-mail at david.pudge@cliffordchance.com. Please put “City of London Law Society Company Law Committee” in the subject-line. The deadline for applications is close of business on Friday 17th April 2026.

When applying, please send a short CV/bio and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee and what you would expect to contribute to the Committee. If you have any queries, please contact either David, or Kevin Hart at kevin.hart@clls.org.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
