

Arbitration Law Committee – Appointment of new members

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Arbitration Law Committee has new vacancies to the Committee. It is therefore seeking applications from prospective new members for its work in arbitration and its representation of the legal profession in arbitration in the City of London and abroad.

Applicants should be members of the CLLS, preferably as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm; applications from individual members (including affiliates) will also be considered. Applicants should be experienced in arbitration and primarily at partnership or equivalent level. They should be committed about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, and be able to dedicate enough time to participate in its work, including regular meetings in the City of London.

To apply, please send a CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee to Michael Davison at michael.davison@hoganlovells.com. Please put “City of London Law Society Arbitration Law Committee” in the subject-line. The deadline is close of business on Friday 3rd May 2024.

If you need any further information about the committee, please contact Michael.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
