

Fireside Chat

Peter King,
Director,
Treasury Legal Advisers

Court Steward
Lee McLernon

Date: 18th September 2024

Time: 17:00 – 18:00

Location: Online

Members of the City of London Law Society are invited to join City of London Solicitors' Company Court Steward, Lee McLernon in conversation with Peter King, the Director, Treasury Legal Advisers.

Peter was appointed as the Director, Treasury Legal Advisers, in December 2017. Before his current appointment, Peter was a lawyer in private practice based in London between July 2008 and November 2017. He specialised in corporate law, advising multinational companies primarily in the financial services industry. He trained at Linklaters, where he qualified as a solicitor in 1983 and became a partner in 1990. He was subsequently a partner at Shearman & Sterling (2003-2008) and Weil, Gotshal & Manges (2008-2017).

The Director, Treasury Legal Advisers, acts as HM Treasury's general counsel, responsible for providing legal advice to HM Treasury ministers and officials in relation to all aspects of HM Treasury's work. To do this, the Director works with the team of lawyers allocated to HM Treasury, with external law firms and counsel, and with the Government Legal Department's litigation and employment law divisions.

The event will last approximately one hour and there will be an opportunity to ask questions. Please book your place by emailing liz.thomas@cills.org

There is no charge for the event but donations to the Solicitors' Company's charitable fund are welcome and can be made to:

The City of London Solicitors' Company

SC: 40-52-40

AC: 00001062