CLLS AI Committee Event

City firms are increasingly adopting AI tools, including Generative AI. Alongside the potential for innovation, productivity and savings, there are serious risks including errors, IP and privacy breaches and loss of privilege. Our panel will discuss key measures to mitigate the risks and the role of new insurance products in the era of AI.

Our panel of experts will include:

Alexandra Matthews
Insure AI, Munich Re

Ed Pocock
Gallagher Re

Graham Reid
Partner, RPC

Topics of discussion to include:

- + Key potential risks of using AI in legal services
- + Whether the SRA's minimum insurance requirements cover AI
- + New insurance models for the adoption of cutting-edge technologies
- + Measuring the performance of AI tools
- + Risk mitigations and AI policies insurers might require from law firms using AI
- + Whether law firms can exclude liability where clients want them to use AI
- + How professional negligence tests could apply to AI
