

Corporate Crime and Corruption Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (“CLLS”) Corporate Crime and Corruption Committee is seeking applications from prospective new members in response to its busy workload and activities

Applications are welcomed from individuals at partner level (or equivalent) who are members (which also includes affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm.

Applicants must be experienced legal practitioners in the sphere of corporate crime, white collar crime and fraud. Applicants should be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee and be able to commit sufficient time to participate fully in its work, including attending meetings (held at least five times a year), participating in subcommittees and working groups, and assisting with the production of written materials such as responses to consultation papers.

To apply, please contact the Committee Chair, Louise Hodges (lhodges@kingsleynapley.co.uk), copying the Committee Secretary, Phil Taylor (phil.taylor@whitecase.com). When applying, please attach a CV or similar background materials as well as a short cover letter including an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee.

Applications should be sent by close of business on Friday, 13th February 2026.

If you have any queries about this role, or membership of the CLLS, please contact Kevin Hart at kevin.hart@clls.org

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
