

Land Law Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Land Law Committee comprises senior solicitors whose practice comprises land law. It currently has vacancies to fill arising from the retirement of long standing Committee members. The Committee is therefore seeking applications from prospective new members. Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm, be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, be at partner level or equivalent, and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including regular meetings in the City of London.

Copies of the minutes of the meetings of the Committee are available on the CLLS website and provide an insight into the work of the Committee. That work includes monitoring relevant prospective legislation, submitting responses to consultations, preparing and updating industry standard precedents, including the CLLS Certificate of Title, and providing guidance on law and practice for practitioners.

To apply, please contact the Chair, Jackie Newstead, at Hogan Lovells International LLP, by e-mail at jackie.newstead@hoganlovells.com. The deadline is close of business on Friday 20th September 2024.

When applying, please send a short CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee and what you would expect to contribute to the Committee

If you have any queries, please contact either Jackie, or Kevin Hart at kevin.hart@clls.org.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
