

CLLS Training Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Training Committee currently has two vacancies. We are inviting applications from prospective new members to join our dynamic Committee – which is well respected in the law firm L&D sector.

Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS, either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm, be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including regular meetings in the City of London.

Ideally, we are looking to fill these vacancies with two solicitors with significant practice experience, who are keen to drive and support Committee related projects, workshops and thought leadership articles (we anticipate contributions equating to approximately 5-10 days annually, but it might be a little more).

The CLLS website and Training Committee page contains more information about the CLLS. The Committee, and its group of talented and energetic members, are active on LinkedIn and promote the work of the Committee, so do take a look to find out more about the work of the Committee.

If you require further information about the role, please contact the CLLS Training Committee Chair, Patrick McCann, at Linklaters LLP, by e-mail: patrick.mccann@linklaters.com (until 31st January 2025), or Vice-Chair Charlotte Wanendeya at CharlotteWanendeya@bpp.com. Applications should be sent by close of business on Monday 10th February 2025.

When applying, please send your CV including an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee, and what you would hope to achieve during your first year on the Committee. If you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact Patrick, Charlotte, or Kevin Hart of the CLLS at kevin.hart@cls.org.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.

The City of London Law Society
www.citysolicitors.org.uk