City of London Solicitors' Company Announces Karen Anderson as Recipient of the 2024 Distinguished Service Award

The City of London Solicitors' Company (CLSC) is delighted to announce that Karen Anderson, Herbert Smith Freehills Consultant, has been honoured with its Distinguished Service Award for 2024. This award recognizes her exceptional leadership and unwavering commitment over more than a decade as Chair of the City of London Law Society's (CLLS) Regulatory Law Committee.

Under Karen Anderson's inspired guidance, the Regulatory Law Committee navigated some of the most complex and expansive areas of law. Her tenure saw significant contributions in the realm of EU market regulatory law, banking, pensions, and financial regulation. Her expertise was instrumental in managing the implementation of these intricate legal frameworks.

Currently, the committee faces the challenges involved in unwinding EU law and adapting to the new UK and international regulatory landscape post-Brexit. With Karen Anderson's leadership, the committee has been pivotal in helping to shape and implement this post-EU regulatory law, ensuring a smooth transition and adaptation to an evolving legal environment.

The CLCS and the CLLS extend their heartfelt thanks to Karen Anderson for her immense contribution and dedicated service. Her leadership has been invaluable, and her impact on the development of both national and international law has been profound and far-reaching.
