The City of London Law Society

Symposium with the SRA

"A regulatory reset: the importance of ethics as a driver of proportionate regulation"

Tuesday 24th November 2026

4.00-5.30 pm

Join Jonathan Peddie, SRA Executive Director Investigations, Enforcement and Litigation & Aileen Armstrong, SRA Executive Director, Strategy and Policy, in conversation with CLLS Chairman Colin Passmore KC (Hon) as they explore the role of professional ethics in supporting and shaping proportionate, effective regulation.

The session will be held at the offices of Clyde & Co, St Botolph Building, 138 Houndsditch, London EC3A 7AR.

Email: Liz.Thomas@clls.org to book your place.

The discussion will include a Q&A session. We welcome any questions or issues that you wish to raise and ask that these are submitted in advance to the email address above.