

Financial Law Committee – Vacancy

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Financial Law Committee is made up of senior solicitors whose practices include advising on English law and UK legislation relating to financial transactions, financial products and financial market infrastructures. The Committee wishes to recruit one new member and is particularly interested in senior practitioners who have experience in advising on bilateral and syndicated lending, real estate finance, leveraged finance and structured finance transactions.

Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm. Applicants should be partners or equivalent experienced in financial law, they should be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including regular meetings in the City of London.

To apply, please contact the Committee Chair, Sarah Smith, of Baker & McKenzie LLP, by e-mail at Sarah.Smith@bakermckenzie.com. The deadline for applications is close of business on Thursday 17th April 2025.

When applying, please send a short CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee and what you would expect to contribute to the Committee. If you have any queries, please contact either Sarah Smith, or Kevin Hart at kevin.hart@clls.org.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
